

Dear TiME supporter,

TiME's annual report — out now — is filled with reasons to celebrate. Being part of TiME means we can mark each year with actual, tangible successes that mean true, immediate change for wildlife, biodiversity, and people.

2025 saw our biggest achievement yet: we protected three different habitats, including two in our first direct collaboration with Indigenous people who can now practice their culture while conserving threatened biodiversity hotspots.

We celebrate these achievements at a very unique time. 2026 is TiME's 10th anniversary! And this fact is no less than extraordinary: for the past decade, anyone, anywhere, can contribute just one dollar a year to take an active part in the conservation of our Earth's biodiversity. Thank you for being a part of this miracle!

Moving forward, this year our campaign consists of three new threatened habitats you can save. Learn more about them — IKIAM Reserve \(Ecuador\), Río Roberto \(Ecuador\) and Rocha Bros \(Brazil\) — and cast your vote today!

A celebratory 10-year anniversary

TiME is celebrating a decade: a decade in which we have purchased 13 threatened habitats by crowdfunding and allowing each citizen of the world to take a part in keeping the Earth wonderful.

In the words of TiME's founder and CEO:

TiME is built on optimism and the belief that we can succeed. What we have achieved so far is meaningful, but what remains to be achieved is even more important.
